Fellowship of the Keys Camp- 6/9/24

This year the fellowship camp was at Mogren Cabins and the nature there was amazing.

The water's moods from calm to wavy and stormy are beautiful because it shows while things change physically, the nature does not change.

Having mass outside is a good because it showed me that mass doesn't have to be in a certain location or be very strict. We moved mass during the offertory because it started raining. That showed me that, like the above, all that truly matters is the nature, not the physical appearance.

Nature may die but it always comes back. When you are in the city, it can seem like nature is not present, but you just have to look closely, it is there. Sometimes we feel that God is not with us, but like the flower in the city, we need to open the door of our hearts.

In nature, no thing looks
